A Letter from Executive Director George Sachs

As the spring and summer seasons arrive, the McLean Community Center Governing Board and staff are welcoming the change of seasons with a multitude of activities—all for you to enjoy.

As you can see on the cover, it is almost time for our largest annual event, McLean Day. As we welcome more than 13,000 visitors to Lewinsville Park, let me encourage you to take a few minutes as you enter the park to vote for candidates who are running for seats on our Governing Board. Your vote is vital to the success of our mission to meet the needs of members of our community. These candidates who volunteer to serve on the board need your input and support as they seek to represent you. Please take the time to cast your ballot or vote by absentee ballot if you cannot attend McLean Day this year. Detailed information is listed on pages 3–5.

Speaking of volunteers, in February we held the annual Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon to honor and celebrate our wonderful volunteers. See the article on pages 5–6. We deeply appreciate our many volunteers. As a matter of fact, our volunteers are critical to the function and operation of the center. We could not do what we do without their continuing support. I want to take this opportunity to express a heartfelt and huge “Thank you!” to the many volunteers who have given their time and talents to ensuring our success.

I hope you and your family will plan to join us in the coming months for some exciting activities. Our summer camp programs and classes offer your children a wide array of enriching experiences. The Alden’s free summer concerts are family-friendly and they’re a great place to visit with your neighbors. The annual July 4th Independence Day Celebration and the Old Firehouse Block Party in August are other summer fun options.

The Governing Board, staff and I are looking forward to returning to the Center soon. Our Ingleside Avenue renovation project is progressing well and we hope to be returning to our home soon. See the article on page 7 for more details.

Best wishes for a happy and healthy spring and summer,

George Sachs

Meet The Candidates! (listed in alphabetical order)

Adult Candidates—Three Positions Open

Maria Foderaro-Guertin
I’m excited to run as a candidate for the board of the McLean Community Center. My husband and I have lived in McLean for 14 years. We’re grateful to be raising our twins in such a wonderful community. I have been a foreign language and history teacher for 20 years. I have broad experience working with companies and nonprofits facing budget challenges. I’ve been pleased to work with many organizations advancing core values my parents instilled in me: volunteerism and hard work. With your vote, I will continue that work with our board to expand offerings for our vibrant community.

Carole Herrick
McLean Community Center opened in 1975; thus, it has served residents of Small District 1A for 43 years. It is the community’s jewel. Among its many features, the center provides community information, classes, lectures, meeting space, a kitchen, the Susan B. DuVal Art Studio, the MPA gallery, the Alden Theatre and a teen center. Years ago, I served three terms on the Governing Board, followed by Friends of MCC. Soon a more modern center will open. I hope to be the connection with the vision of those who created the original center and those providing a vision for its future.

Terri Markwart
As a member of the McLean Community Center Board, I will support the mission of the Center by promoting a sense of community through its programs and renovated facilities while respecting the tax dollars of the residents of Small District 1A. I am an 18-year resident of McLean with three children in our public schools. As Langley High School’s past PTSA President, former GMU adjunct professor, member of Redeemer Lutheran Church, TEDxTysons, Tysons Interfaith, Safe Community Coalition and McLean Youth/Langley athletics volunteer, my experience will work for the residents of Greater McLean. Thank you for your vote.

Raj Mehra
I am running for a seat on the McLean Community Center board because I care deeply about the community. My family has been residents of McLean since 2003 and my wife and daughters grew up in McLean. We are supporters of the McLean Project for the Arts, I have served for the last five years on the board of the Greater McLean Chamber of Commerce and when my children were younger, I was a coach for McLean Youth Soccer and McLean Basketball. The charm of McLean is what I treasure most, and I want to help preserve this.

Youth Candidates—Two Positions Open
Langley High School Boundary Area

Brian Kim
Hello, my name is Brian and I am a student at Langley High School. I am running for a position on the Governing Board to become an active member of my community. I have had previous experiences as a campaign organizer at the Fairfax County Democratic Committee, an intern at Sejong Geriatric Hospital and a volunteer at Sibley Memorial Hospital. At Langley, I am a member of the Debate Team and Varsity Golf Team. Overall, I am not only interested in working with professionals and other students, but also eager to participate in the administration of McLean.

Megan Markwart
A life-long McLean resident and sophomore at Langley, I’ve been attending MCC programs since I was born—tagging along with my siblings to Music Together class. Redeemer Lutheran Church and my family taught me the importance of giving back and sports taught me the value of working together as a team. I work at McLean Hardware, play Langley Field Hockey, JV Soccer Captain and elected Class of 2020 SGA representative. I am also interested in being part of the discussion about how to increase youth programming at the Old Firehouse and the newly renovated MCC. Thank you for your vote.

Serena Aurora
I believe that student governors have a special role and should always try to assess issues and decisions from the point of view of other students. Being student governor is about making sure that all perspectives are considered. I want to become a youth governor to learn more about how the community is run and to support the people in it. I have gained many experiences ranging from leading and participating in various committees to holding leadership roles. In all, I want to have a better understanding of the main concerns and policies that affect the children in our community.

Lauren Herzberg
I am a second-generation McLean resident; I love this town and the people that make it up. McLean High School has fostered my love for field hockey, where I was JV captain and Varsity player, developed my interest in business through DECA and spurred by fascination with the Spanish language. My true passion lies in serving others. I volunteer for Jill’s House, where I provide care for children with disabilities. I pledge to implement my love for service into the McLean Community Center and promote leadership programs to prepare McLean’s youth for the future.

McLean Community Center Names Melanie Sanders-Smith Its 2017 Outstanding Volunteer

Kimya Shirazi

The identity of a community is characterized by the degree to which its members are engaged with one another. As a member of the McLean community for 16 years, I’ve always felt the unique sense of inclusion that its people, events and resources offer. I’m currently a junior at McLean High School who is running for the McLean student position on the McLean Community Center Board. My primary intention for wanting this position is because I aim to play an influential role in heightening McLean’s collective involvement, the same quality which I admire about the community in the first place.

Email: kimyashirazi@gmail.com
These volunteers have helped at many of the events the Center produces, including the McLean Holiday Crafts Show, the Spring and Fall Community Garage Sales, McLean Day and the Independence Day Celebration.

“Melanie and her LDS youth group have worked all day in the blaring heat and in the cold rain improving the quality of our events and making our events better-staffed” said Nesbitt. “She has worked with her LDS youth group, passing on valuable knowledge and training to ensure the positions they fill are performed at their highest capacity, displaying stellar volunteerism and, in turn, enhancing MCC programs and initiatives.”

In presenting the award, MCC Executive Director George Sachs thanked all the Center’s volunteers for their continued support. Of Sanders-Smith he said, “Melanie’s volunteer efforts have made MCC programs better, which ultimately makes our community a better place to live.”

An MCC Staffer in the Spotlight

Danielle Van Hook, Director, Youth Theatre Programs

Eighteen months ago, The Alden welcomed a new Director of its Youth Theatre Programs. Meet Danielle Van Hook. She was hired to fill the position after the retirement of longtime employee Kathy Herr. An experienced theater professional with a love of youth, Danielle has been busy refreshing the performing arts division’s offerings for the “under 18” crowd.

An Arts Management graduate of Juniata College, Danielle began her career at the Wolf Trap Foundation’s Institute for Early Learning through the Arts where she worked with teachers to bring artists to area classrooms. Before joining MCC, she worked in the programming and resource development department at the Association of Performing Arts Professionals, the largest service organization for performing arts industry professionals. Her new job encompasses “everything and anything” that The Alden offers for youth and the performing arts, including the family performance series, Alden productions featuring McLean youth, (the) Unruly Theatre Project and other improv programs, the Macdonald Scholarship Competition, summer concerts and the music education program, as well as youth performing arts master classes and workshops.

“The best part of my job is getting to know the community! Between the professional artist series for families and our programs for young actors, I get to meet arts lovers of all ages,” she said. Parents have expressed to Van Hook that they are offered improv training at their workplaces and they are happy to see our improv programs being offered to youth. “I see how improv improves students’ confidence, leadership, quick thinking and many other abilities, but it’s even better when parents get excited about the impact.” she says. Working with young McLean actors on Alden-produced shows has also been a rewarding experience. “Participants are sometimes upset when the shows end. This always reminds me of the great impact the performing arts has on the lives of young people and it also speaks to the power theater has to unite us,” she said.

On a personal note, Danielle and her husband Travis married shortly before she began her new position. The couple recently added a new member to their family, a Goldendoodle puppy named JoJo. According to Van Hook, “She loves people and is the sweetest bundle of energy.” Look for JoJo (and Danielle) at The Alden’s summer concerts in McLean Central Park this July.

You can contact Van Hook at danielle.vanhook@fairfaxcounty.gov or 703-744-9368.
McLean, It’s Our Time to Shine!

Progress Continues on Ingleside Renovation Project

As we enter the spring, work on the McLean Community Center’s renovation and expansion project continues with easily visible progress being made on the additions. The project remains on schedule and within budget. If all goes as planned, the project may be completed within the new year.

Contractor Sorenson Gross has started to finish much of the site work and recently completed extensive work on the building’s foundation. Reaching this milestone has allowed the construction team to move on to erecting steel beams for the additional meeting rooms and enclosed courtyard, which will be located at the rear of the original building. The layout of the new multi-purpose rooms, extended lobby area and new conference rooms are now visible and allows one to get a sense of what the renovated building will look like looking north from the intersection of Oak Ridge Ave. and Ingleside Ave.

Upon completion of the placement of the steel girders, the contractor will slowly start enclosing the structures and focusing their work on the inside of the building. Interior projects include extending fire protection into the new areas of the building, running electricity and the IT infrastructure to support the new meeting rooms and extending necessary plumbing to the new restrooms.

Check for renovation updates on the Center’s website, www.mcleancenter.org.
Therapy Dogs Lift Hearts and Bring Happiness to the Old Firehouse

People Animals Love (PAL) is a Washington, D.C. based nonprofit whose mission is “to utilize the human-animal bond to brighten the lives of the lonely, ease the pain of the sick, and enrich the world of at-risk children.” PAL volunteers now visit the Old Firehouse Center (OFC) once a month to provide a pet therapy session for OFC members and other guests.

Gelman, who owns three pet therapy dogs, said a dog must have the right personality to become a therapy dog. The PAL volunteers also have offered their services at the Paws to Read programs at Falls Church and Arlington libraries, McLean High School, Walter Reed National Military Medical Center and Sunrise Assisted Living facilities in the area.

“The teens love the dogs and come every month. It is special to see them make an emotional connection,” said Teen Center Manager Ashlyn Thompson.

At the most recent visit in February, volunteers brought four dogs to the center. Longtime volunteer Nancy Murray brought her dog Cameo, a Collie/Husky mix; Sari Clark brought her King Charles Spaniel named Max; John Herold brought his dog Samantha (“Sammy” for short) a golden retriever; and Dave Gelman brought his border collie mix, Destiny.

McLean High School student Robert Bianco gets a warm welcome from Destiny.
Longfellow Middle School student Maddie Ernst agrees. She spent some time with Destiny during the session.

“I like it. It’s fun and my friends from school are here.”

For more information, contact the Old Firehouse at 703-448-8336 or oldfirehouse@mcleancenter.org.

Instructor Allie O’Hare, or “Miss Allie” as she is known, brings dedication, energy and enthusiasm to her work with young dancers-in-training at MCC. Joy of Dance director Marilyn Baird, parents, students and Center staff have all been delighted to work with O’Hare for the last seven years.

O’Hare earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Dance and Choreography from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2007. After performing professionally, including with the Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines, she decided to try teaching. “I had no idea how much I would fall in love with it,” she said. “I get to share my love for the art with all of my students and at the same time, I learn so much from them.”

At MCC, she teaches a wide array of classes, including Pre-Primary I and II, Combination I, II and IV, Junior Company, Senior Company, Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Hip-Hop and Contemporary.

“At MCC, I love the sense of community, the staff and the atmosphere at MCC. All the families I work with are amazing and make me feel appreciated and loved. There is never a dull moment when I’m at work. My students never fail to make me laugh and touch my heart with their sweet little souls every day,” she said. “I get to share my love for the art with all of my students and at the same time, I learn so much from them.”

At MCC, she teaches a wide array of classes, including Pre-Primary I and II, Combination I, II and IV, Junior Company, Senior Company, Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Hip-Hop and Contemporary.

In her free time, O’Hare enjoys spending time with her family. She describes her mother and father as her biggest supporters and her brother and sister have provided her with her favorite “role” thus far --- that of doting aunt to several nieces and nephews.
The following MCC classes will be held at 6645 Old Dominion Dr., in the McLean Square Shopping Center. For more information, contact the registrar at 703-744-9365 or registrar@mcleancenter.org.

Classes for Parents & Children

Music Together® (MCC)

Music Together®, an internationally-recognized music and movement program, engages early childhood music development for infant, toddler and preschool children and their parents and other primary caregivers through mixed-aged classes. It pioneered the concept of a research-based, developmentally-appropriate early childhood music curriculum that strongly emphasizes and facilitates adult involvement and, it’s fun! The Music Together® approach develops every child’s birthright of basic music competence by encouraging the actual experiencing of music through playful activities rather than the learning of concepts or information about music.

Please note: Instructors may be subject to change without notification. It is not the responsibility of McLean Community Center and its instructors to make up, prorate or reimburse any missed classes due to the enrollee’s personal absences and/or schedule conflicts.

MPA Art + Storytelling Summer Art Camp 2018 @ MPA

Does your child love hearing a story? Do you see them imagining and living out their favorite story characters? This summer, the McLean Project for the Arts (MPA) is offering art camps that integrate classic elements of art with dramatic themes rooted in multicultural literary myths. Draw, print, collage, paint and construct your way through ancient and modern-day legends and myths from across the world, including Greek, Chinese, European and American traditions. Artmaking will emphasize the drama of each story through elements of art, color and line shape using a wide variety of mediums including drawing, painting and 3-D construction. Live readings, improv sessions and other theatrical activities will prompt campers to discover and interpret these stories.

MPA Art + Storytelling will encourage the integration of art and drama by following a multi-faceted theme throughout the week, incorporating a tactile exploration of literature, culture, and of course, art. While connecting art and drama, your camper will:

- Revel in the mythologies of ancient Greek culture through the story of “Daedalus and Icarus.”
- Explore the range of medieval literature from “Robin Hood” to Shakespeare.
- Discover ancient Chinese culture and the role of heroes and heroines through “The Ballad of Hua-Mulan,” the ancient legend that inspired the Disney movie “Mulan.”
- Experience classic American authors such as Mark Twain and Laura Ingalls Wilder.

These week-long sessions will culminate in creative projects bringing to life these myths and legends.

Campers of all artistic experience are welcome!

Watch for further details on our website: www.mpaart.org/education/summer-art-camps.

Camps for Teens

Vosler Young Artists’ Studio @ MPA
Classical Drawing and Painting Program for Teens

Join us as we welcome back Kerry Vosler and her highly regarded atelier studio for the third year in a row! This workshop will introduce the young artist to a classical atelier program of instruction where they will learn to draw through direct observation.

For any young artist with the desire to learn classical drawing. No previous experience is necessary. Students will draw a variety of pictures in charcoal throughout the week, including copy work from the late 19th century Bargue-Gérôme Drawing Course, culminating in a session with a live model on Friday afternoon. The Bargue drawings this year will include different content on the human skull and muscles of the face and neck. Students will have at least two finished portfolio drawings by the end of the week, and parents and families are encouraged to attend the closing certificate ceremony on Friday.

During lunch, guest artists will be invited to speak to the students. All materials provided. Please bring a bag lunch.

The Majestic
Hudson River Valley
Sunday, Sept. 23 – Wednesday, Sept. 26

The Hudson River is an ancient river that goes back 75 million years and cuts its valley between the Catskill and Taconic mountains, continuing down the Hudson Highlands and flowing into the Atlantic Ocean. Its beauty is rarely surpassed.

Day 1
After boarding the bus and on the way to the Hudson River Valley, we will stop at the home of Frederick and Louise Vanderbilt. This glorious mansion was designed by Stanford White and is an excellent example of “The Gilded Age.” The Beekman Arms in historic Rhinebeck, N.Y., will be our home for three nights. First established as a traveler’s inn in 1704, the Beekman Arms has hosted a wide range of guests, from George Washington and Alexander Hamilton to Nicole Kidman and Billy Joel. A continental breakfast will be included every morning.

One of the highlights of the Hudson River Valley is the Franklin Delano Roosevelt National Historic Site and Val-Kill Cottage, the retreat of Eleanor Roosevelt.

Day 2
This will be a busy day that includes guided tours of both Springwood, FDR’s birthplace and home, and Val-Kill Cottage, the only National Historic Site dedicated to a first lady. Lunch will be at Coppolla’s which has been a fixture of Southern Italian cuisine in Hyde Park for 55 years. Dinner Monday night will be at the renowned Culinary Institute of America (CIA) and there will be a guided tour preceding dinner. The CIA is the premiere culinary school in the United States whose students graduate to jobs at the top kitchens all over the world.

Vanderbilt Mansion, home of Frederick and Louise Vanderbilt.

Springwood, birthplace and home of Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Val-Kill Cottage, home of Eleanor Roosevelt.
Day 3
Our morning begins with a tour of Staatsburgh, which was the elegant country home of Ruth and Ogden Mills. This grand masterpiece was enlarged and remodeled by the prestigious architectural firm of McKim, Mead and White. It is an outstanding example of the country estates that were built by industrial leaders in the late 1890s. Lunch will be in the town of Kingston, which was the first capital of New York in 1777. This trip would not be complete without a boat ride on the beautiful Hudson. Enjoy both indoor and outdoor seating on the Rip Van Winkle Cruise Boat while hearing the history of the mighty Hudson River. Dinner that night will be at Terrapin Restaurant in historic Rhinebeck.

Activity No. 7001.318
$1,345 per person, double occupancy/$1,320 MCC district residents. Single Supplement: $1,712/$1,687 MCC district residents. Presidents Day in December

Wednesday, Dec. 5

James Monroe, our fifth president lived at his home named Highland for 25 years. It was Thomas Jefferson who encouraged Monroe to purchase Highland which was adjacent to Jefferson’s home, Monticello. Unfortunately, due to increasing debt, Monroe was forced to sell his beloved estate in 1825. Fittingly, the home is now owned and operated by Monroe’s alma mater, the College of William and Mary. Our guided tour consists of the house and any additions that Monroe made. Just recently archaeologists discovered the foundation of a much larger house now presumed to be Monroe’s home.

Lunch will be at Michie’s Tavern, opened in 1784 and is designated as a Virginia historic landmark. The lunch will be traditional and homemade southern fare. The Tavern Gift Shop and General Store will be filled with holiday goodies.

Monticello is our last stop of the day because there is so much to explore. Jefferson began creating and building Monticello at the young age of 26 and modeled it after the designs of the Italian Renaissance architect, Andrea Palladio who Jefferson greatly admired. For Jefferson, Monticello was an ongoing project. Started in 1772, this grand estate started out as a plantation house but after Jefferson’s trips to Europe as Secretary of State, many of the classical buildings of Italy and France influenced Jefferson’s designs. The outbuildings and slave quarters may also be visited.

Do not miss this opportunity to learn about the lives of two presidents who helped shape our great nation and enjoy a delicious lunch at the famed Michie’s Tavern. Ashlawn and Monticello will be decorated for the holidays.

Activity No. 7001.218

$158/$153 MCC district residents, which includes deluxe motor coach transportation, admission to Highland and Monticello, buffet lunch, a morning snack and a driver tip. Please arrive by 6:45am, bus leaves promptly at 7:00am. Tour returns approximately at 7:00pm. Pick up place TBD. Please make check to Excursionaire. Questions? Erratic Landscapes: New Works by Artemis Herber

Working with the humble material of recycled corrugated cardboard, German-born, Maryland-based artist Artemis Herber creates massive depictions of space and place. Devoid of people, the works insist on viewer interaction. They strongly suggest a possibly risky entrance into her imagined hybrid environments of abandoned cities, threatening clouds, distant horizons and eternal twilight. These are places that reside within the realm of what Herber describes as “alienated poetry” and to view them is to experience a place that hovers somewhere between the past, present and future.

Too Much of Too Much: Overstimulated, Overexposed, Overextended
Juried by Laura Roulet, Independent Curator

This juried exhibition will feature works by Mid-Atlantic artists who explore the idea of overstimulation, excessiveness and bombardment, be it through too much information, activity, expectation or by any other means. Multiple approaches through many different media will be included.

McLean Project for the Arts (MPA) is a nonprofit organization that presents the visual arts program for the community at the McLean Community Center (MCC), thanks to a public/private partnership with MCC and Fairfax County.

MPA presents exhibitions of contemporary art in three galleries and provides education in the visual arts through a program of classes for children and adults, as well as lectures, tours and ArtReach, an outreach program that brings school children and other groups to the gallery for educational programs. MPA presents art classes at the McLean Community Foundation Art Studio, 1446 Chain Bridge Rd., (see class listings on pages 20–23).

You love movies—maybe you quote them in your everyday life, maybe you get shushed in movie theatres, or maybe you act out your favorite scenes in front of the mirror. This is your type of movie! You can recite your favorite lines all you want, but if you don’t have the movie memorized, we’ve got you covered: there will be a list of famous quotes attached to your box of free popcorn and onscreen subtitles when it’s time to say them. And, in the spirit of “The Rocky Horror Picture Show,” you can even get a bag of props so you can really get into the movie.

School’s Out for Summer Quote-Along Movie
Our Audience’s Choice! Vote Now!
Sunday, June 10, 2 p.m.
Admission is $3 per person/$5 per couple. Popcorn is free. Prop bags are $5 each. Advance purchase at www.aldentheatre.org is recommended.
The Old Firehouse, 1440 Chain Bridge Rd.

What’s your school personality? Are you more of a summer vacation romance type of person (“Dirty Dancing”)? Maybe you’re a carpe diem type who skips school to have a wild adventure (“Ferris Bueller’s Day Off”). Or perhaps you’re focused on your future and can be seen selling lanyards door-to-door to pay for college (“Napoleon Dynamite”). To celebrate the close of the school year, we’re letting you vote on which quote-along movie will kick off summer.

Head over to www.surveymonkey.com/r/summerquotealong to cast your vote by May 10!
Summer Sunday Concerts in the Park

Free concerts, open to the public, at 5 p.m. Sundays in July and August in McLean Central Park Gazebo, 1468 Dolley Madison Blvd.

This summer's concert series will be more family friendly than ever. The odd Sundays in July will offer music for those of us in double digits, while even-numbered Sundays will be super fun for everyone. In August the kids take over for kid-centric concerts. Regardless of your age, we have a terrific variety of music! Come to one or come to all, but be sure to come.

Black Masala
www.blackmasala.com
Sunday, July 1, 5 p.m.
DC's own Balkan and funk-music inspired brass band dishing out a heaping helping of dance grooves with multicultural influences. The award-winning group will have you dancing to the beat.

Backtrack
www.backtrackvocals.com
Sunday, July 8, 5 p.m.
Known for pushing the limits of a cappella, Backtrack's repertoire spans past and present pop covers to classical and electronic music. The whole family will be dancing along to their unique vocal arrangements and world-class beatboxing. It's going to be a ca-mazing!

Oh He Dead
www.ohhedead.com
Sunday, July 15, 5 p.m.
Perhaps best described as “rock and soul,“ Oh He Dead mixes in healthy doses of classic R&B, funk and folk with deliciously addictive songwriting. Led by the stirring harmonies of Cynthia Johnson and Andy Valenti, Oh He Dead’s Motown influences and poignant lyrics will move both your soul and your feet.

Hip-Hop Meets the Music of India
Sunday, July 22, 5 p.m.
Indian Violinist Nistha Raj and Grammy-nominated progressive hip-hop artist Christylez Bacon present a collaboration that mixes genres of music native to each of their cultural upbringings, Hindustani Classical music and acoustic Hip-Hop and D.C.'s Go-Go.

The English Channel
www.thenglishchannel.com
Sunday, July 29, 5 p.m.
This British Invasion re-creation is always a favorite with McLean! Come hear the sounds of the ’60s and ’70s by such bands as The Beatles, The Stones, The Who, The Kinks and even bands that don’t have “the” in their names.

Kara and Matty D
www.karaandmattyd.com
Sunday, Aug. 5, 5 p.m.
One of our favorite summer bands is back, but this time they are performing for the kiddos!

Morgan Taylor’s “Music of Gustafer Yellowgold” http://gustaferyellowgold.com
Sunday, Aug. 12, 5 p.m.
Two-time GRAMMY® Nominee, Morgan Taylor and his band will play perennial favorites and dig deep into the wild and hip back catalogue for this rare, non-video version of his nationally heralded Gustafer Yellowgold show. Tasteful, smart and FUN songs for everyone!

Watch out for our Countdown Concerts in September. We’ll go through the decades from the McLean Community Center's opening in the disco era all the way to the music of today to get you excited about our grand reopening!
