

McLean Community Center Code of Conduct

The McLean Community Center (MCC) welcomes all visitors. We want everyone to feel safe and welcome, and expect all visitors to be respectful of our neighbors, staff and facilities while using our community center spaces, programs and services. This MCC Code of Conduct outlines unacceptable behavior which is actionable at the sole discretion of the MCC staff.

Prohibited behavior includes, without limitation:

- 1 Disruptive or unsafe behavior
- 2 Harassing, threatening or intimidating language/behavior, including displaying an object or weapon that may be harmful or threatening
- 3 Using internet access in violation of Code of Virginia*
- 4 Inappropriate use of restrooms and other facilities for anything other than their intended purpose
- 5 Damaging or removing materials or property, or rearranging furniture without permission
- 6 Consuming or possessing alcoholic beverages, unless at authorized events, or using or possessing illegal drugs on the premises
- 7 Leaving bags or packages unattended
- 8 Using tobacco products inside the building, including smoking or vaping
- 9 Selling goods or services, or distributing materials, including lobbying/campaigning, unless in accordance with the procedures set forth in the building use policy

A person or group that fails to observe these rules may be asked to leave and could have future access to the MCC limited or suspended. The MCC works in partnership with the Fairfax County Police Department to keep its visitors, staff and facilities safe.

Thank you for your cooperation.
